

Whenever someone comes up with something that is not imoral or illgal that helps the automobile industry and also the American work force some special intrest group wants a piece of the action. What has happened to free entriprise in this country?